

A Furious Elephant at Large - Three Horses Killed - Numerous Wagons Demolished - A Number of Persons Injured. The large elephant, Hannah, attached to the Broadway menagerie, which was on exhibition at Pawtucket on the 3d inst., got loose from his keeper, early yesterday morning...

While the keepers were engaged in securing the smaller elephant, who had not yet been manifested any signs of insubordination, the larger one was mounting the horses and wagon, and breaking the collar-bone and arm of Mr. Peck. The horse, disengaged from the wagon, escaped with the fore wheels, and the elephant gave chase for eight miles, but did not catch him. The elephant came back from his unsuccessful pursuit, and took up his march again on the main road, where he next encountered Mr. Eddy, with a horse and wagon. He threw up the whole establishment in the same way as before, smashed the wagon, killed the horse and wounded Mr. Eddy. He threw the horse twenty feet over a fence, into the adjoining lot, then broke down the fence, went over and picked up the dead horse and deposited him in the road, where he had first met him. He killed one other horse, and pursued another who fled toward the elephant followed, which he hit and drove him off. On the route, the keeper being a head of him, saw him plunge over a wall and make for a house. The keeper got there first, hurried the frightened people within to the upper story, and providing himself with an ax succeeded in driving off the furious beast. The elephant finally exhausted his strength, and laid himself down in the bushes, about two miles from the ferry. Here he was secured with chains and carried over the ferry to Fall River. A part of the time he ran at the rate of a mile in three minutes.

DIED. On the 7th inst., in Dixon Township of Typhoid Fever, Mr. David HINKLE, aged 42 years. "He sleeps well after life's fitful dream is o'er." (Caroline Pa. and Greenville papers copy.)
